Meet Seth

Seth is a helpful, smart and fun child to talk to. He enjoys carrying on conversations about anything. He is analytical and he has a great memory, you can always count on Seth to ask good questions. He also enjoys basketball and football and being active. His favorite team are the Carolina Panthers and his favorite food to eat is Macaroni and Cheese! He says, "he could eat Mac & Cheese everyday of his life."

Seth would love to have a dog one day because he really enjoys animals and thinks they are so smart. The ideal family for Seth would be a family that can provide a lot of structure and patience as he continues to grow and form his own character. He would do well with children older or younger as long as he has some space to go through his own growing pains. Ultimately, parents who will commit to loving him each day will be so lucky to have him be apart of their family.
