

Meet Nianoa

Nianoa is a loving and determined young man who loves to laugh. He enjoys riding his bike and playing driving simulator video games. He also has a fascination with trucks and buses.

Nianoa loves school and often receives rewards and certificates for his hard work. He is an integral part of his schools coffee shop, where he serves coffee and snacks to the teachers and staff.

Nianoa is currently enjoying learning American Sign Language and takes pride in teaching others as well. In addition, Nianoa is very active and enjoys sports when he is able to play them.

At home, he enjoys helping out with fixing things around the house and in the yard. Nianoa is also learning other life skills, such as cooking and cleaning.
