

ConnectOne Meet Zachary!

Zach is intuitive, creative, and reserved. Zach loves eating tacos and burritos.

His favorite restaurant is Taco Bell. In his free time, Zach enjoys watching movies and specifically likes horror and comedy movies. The Conjuring is one of his favorite series. Zach also loves playing board games and especially likes Monopoly. He hopes to one day be able to participate in game nights with his future family. Zach is also known to be a “tech wiz” and knows all of the ins and outs of technology.

Zach does very well in school and is an incredibly smart kid-sometimes he may need a little push to apply his full potential. Zach hopes to join the board game club at school later in the year. He is particularly interested in graphic design and also plans to take a drama class again in the future. he enjoys socializing with peers and likes lunchtime at school because he gets to eat and spend time with friends. As far as his future goes, Zach is motivated to work in the field of technology and dreams of working for Samsung one day. Ultimately, he wants to pursue a career working in IT or building/programming computers.

Zach’s ideal family consists of a mom and dad. Though he is also open to having a single dad. He would do well in a family that is somewhat lowkey and has the flexibility in their schedule to spend quality time with him. Zach says he would like to be an only child but is also open to having older siblings. He also shares that he hopes his forever family will have movie nights with him, play board games together and take part in his interests of technology. Zach would thrive in a home that is supportive, consistent and push him to reach his highest potential. Zach was born in 2009.
