Meet Sa'sha!

Meet Sa'sha, a loving soul
with a passion for cooking, reading, and makeup.

Her heart belongs to soul food and Chinese cuisine, and she finds comfort in the kitchen while expressing herself through makeup artistry. In her free time, she enjoys reading poetry and listening to 90's rap and R&B. Sa'sha dreams of attending culinary school to become a chef or pursuing a career in cosmetology. More than anything, she longs for a loving family with whom she can connect, talk, and build lasting bonds. If you're ready to welcome someone who's passionate about food, beauty, and life's adventures into your family, Sa'sha is eager to meet you and embark on this journey together.

Sa'sha was born in 2007.
